Description

The CQ-RX101W and the CQ-RX102W both come with a front AUX input, allowing you to easily connect an MP3 player so you'll never be short of music while you're out on the road. The only difference between these two good looking CD receivers is that the CQ-RX101W has red key illumination, while the CQ-RX102W comes with green key illumination. Both units come with MP3 and WMA, allowing you to burn plenty of music onto the one CD for hours of music in the car
